Where Recruiters are Consultants...

Many think we are an HR Consultancy company. Some think we're a placement network. Others think we're a Recruitment Advertising agency. And few think we're a career advisory company. We are none of these. Because we are all of these.

We are a one-stop solution for recruitment consulting for about 200 corporates and 200,000 professionals. Since 1991, we've been providing end-to-end consulting services to corporates, and Talent Management to professionals (promoting careers, instead of jobs). If you have the consulting mindset, and are IT-savvy, join us. Fire in the belly, a passion to help OTHERS build their careers and a belief in yourself are essential.
